

Steven R. Braun, MBA
President and Chief Executive Officer
Search Consultants International

Steve Braun is President and Chief Executive Officer of Search Consultants International, part of the world's largest executive search network, MRINetwork. Steve joined MRI in 1976 as an Executive Recruiter, and three years later, opened his own practice. He has led the organization to its present-day success conducting global searches on behalf of several Fortune 500 companies and hundreds of midsize and small business clients. Steve's teams focus on many areas including but not limited to sports, healthcare, nonprofit, consumer packaged goods, marketing, cyber security, and accounting. Steve has been consistently recognized as Search Firm of the Year, recipient of many top industry honors and he is a frequent speaker at global industry events and college events.

In addition to his role at Search Consultants, Steve partners with several professional sports players assisting professional athletes with their transition post sports.

Complimenting his professional endeavors, Steve Braun serves as: President of the Maryland Recruiters Association, Board member for the Baltimore City Chamber of Commerce, Past Board of the Maryland Chamber of Commerce, Past President of the Loyola University Sellinger Alumni Board, Member of the Advisory Council for the Maryland Cyber Association, Board member of Warrior Centric Health, and IBoard member, an exclusive group of International Search Firms.

In the community, Steve is actively involved with Ronald McDonald House Charities, March of Dimes, Cristo Rey, Board member of Junior Achievement Maryland and Southern California, Chair of St Jude's Maryland Advisory Council, and Board member for the ClaireMarie Foundation. He enjoys serving as a mentor for NFTE, judging and advising young entrepreneurs' business models, and at Loyola University, where he mentors senior business majors and MBA graduates.

After attending Guilford College in North Carolina, Steve received his MBA with honors from Loyola University. Steve is married to Marianne Rowan-Braun, his greatest achievement along with their 3 extraordinary children: Ryan, Colby, and Taylor, each a rapidly advancing professional in film, international business, and healthcare.
